

We notice that to a first approximation, G is independent of probe displacement, if $\Delta_1 = \Delta_4$ and $\Delta_2 = \Delta_3$, which means that the distance between current probes mutually and between voltage probes mutually is fixed. A four-point probe head construction utilizing this fact, has been published. (c).